

surgery
for tomorrow

Ghent's finest bars & restaurants.
A look into Orsi's favorite places.

WHERE TO DRINK?

Dreupelkot

Little cozy place with more than 200 flavors of jenever. Jenever is the juniper-flavored national and traditional liquor of the Netherlands and Belgium, from which gin originated.

Tip: Order a Vanillejenever.

△ Groentenmarkt 12

Het Waterhuis aan de Bierkant

“Waterhuis aan de Bierkant” is a typical authentic Belgian bar. Overlooking the local canals, you can try more than 100 brands of beer here.

Tip: Order a Klokke Roelandt.

△ Groentenmarkt 9

Dulle Griet

In bar “Dulle Griet” you can taste the world famous Belgian ‘trappist’ beers or you can try the hidden treasures of unknown breweries. The traditional Flemish interior in combination with the largest collection of Belgian beer in Ghent makes the “Dulle Griet” a must-visit.

Tip: Order a Kwak.

△ Vrijdagmarkt 50

Palenque

“Palenque” is a bar of Latin-American style, where you can discover the delights of this continent: beers and wines, both classic cocktails and more inventive mixes and delicious spirits all from Latin America with a focus on Rum and Mezcal.

Tip: Order a Pisco Sour.

△ Serpentstraat 28

WHERE TO EAT?

Publiek *

€50 - €70 / p.

In “Publiek” you can eat upgraded traditional dishes with both every day and forgotten ingredients, represented in original one Michelin star combo's.

△ Ham 39

+32(0)9 330 04 86

Belga Queen

€20 - €40 / p.

In “Belga Queen”, the Belgian cuisine is adapted to today's taste. Lightened and given a very national touch through the addition of beer to numerous dishes. It's located at the famous Graslei where you can stroll along the channels until late in the evening.

△ Graslei 10

+32 (0)9 280 01 00

Pakhuis

€20 - €40 / p.

In “Pakhuis” you get overwhelmed by the huge space that exudes the atmosphere of the former warehouse. Next to that, the overall European food is brilliant.

△ Schuurkenstraat 4

+32(0)9 223 55 55

Café Theatre

€20 - €40 / p.

The stately buildings of the Royal Opera are the decor of the lively restaurant and bar. At the restaurant, you can choose a fast or slow service. A nice fact about the menu: the beef tartar has been awarded the best of Flanders.

△ Schouwburgstraat 7

+32(0)9 265 05 50